The Beach Boys - A Day In The Life of a Tree

[Verse 1]
D F#m/D Em7/D D7
Feel the wind burn through my skin
Em7/D A7/D D
The pain the air is killing me
D F#m/D Em7/D D7
For years, my limbs stretched to the sky
Em7/D A7/D D
A nest for birds to sit and sing
G A7 A#dim Bm D7 Em F#m
But now, my branches suffer and my leaves don’t bear the glow
Em7/D A7/D D
They did so long ago

[Verse 2]
D F#m/D Em7/D D7
One day I was full of life
Em7/D A7/D D
My sap was rich and I was strong
D F#m/D Em7/D D7
From seed to tree, I grew so tall
Em7/D A7/D D
Through wind and rain I could not fall
G A7 A#dim Bm D7 Em
But now, my branches suffer, and my leaves don’t offer
F#m Em7/D A7/D D
Poetry to men of song

[Chorus]
D F#m/D Em7/D
Trees like me weren’t meant to live
D7 Em7/D
If all this world can give
A7/D D
Is pollution and slow death
F#m/D F/D Em7/D D7 Em7/D
Oh Lord, I lay me down, no life’s left to be found
A7/D D
There’s nothing left for me
D F#m/D Em7/D
Trees like me weren’t meant to live
D7 Em7/D
If all this world can give
A7/D D
Is pollution...
F#m/D F/D Em7/D D7 Em7/D
Oh Lord, I lay me down, my branches to the ground
