Cameron Winter - I Will Let You Down

[Intro] - Gm F Em7b5 Dm C Dm A Dm C Bb Bb/A

[Verse 1]
```
         Gm           F              Em7b5      Dm
When the cats are in heat, and the sky is all brown
        C               Dm
And you need my hand to hold
A              Dm
I will let you down
         Gm             F            Em7b5     Dm
When you bump your bald head on the cold riverbed
        C               Dm
And you need a guardian angel
A                  Dm
She will watch you drown
```

[Interlude] - Bb Dm Bb Dm Bb A A/C Dm C Bb Bb/A

[Verse 2]
```
       Gm               F                 Em7b5                Dm
As you wake up hot and hogtied, and you pray your old sail rises
         C               Dm
May your hound-dog enter starving
       A              Dm      C       Bb   Bb/A
May it chew away your too old useless prizes
      Gm               F           Em7b5            Dm
May I live to see your mailmen all break you by the billion
    C              Dm
And if they do not break you
        A             Dm       C      Bb        Bb/A
May you live to watch all your horses jump from buildings
        Gm            F           Em7b5        Dm
And may Jesus lay his foot on the back of your head
        C               D                    A
As your seasick one eyed brown cow stands there laughing
         Dm            C          Bb  Bb/A
With her tail wrapped around your neck
```

            Gm             F              Em7b5    Dm
And as you drown in that river I'll be having a smoke
           C        Dm
With your guardian angel
       A           Dm   C   Bb       Bb/A
In the sand making love and cracking jokes
             Gm          F             Eb               Bb
When you're bloody and naked and the mirror's upside-down
        A           Gm           A                 Dm
And the cats are in heat and the sky is all brown

[Outro] - Bb  Dm  Bb
Dm                  Bb
I will let you down
      A
Yeah, I will you down
Dm              Bb
I will let you down
A               Dm
I will let you down
