Cameron Winter - Emperor XIII In Shades

[Intro]
|B |B

[Verse 1]
B   F#   B
I woke up on horseback not so very late at night
    Bmaj7/G#   F#   B
You barked into the black and I saw the city side
    F#   Bmaj7/G#
You took me down to the track and you drove me down
        F#   B
And you told me you were never gonna let me dry
B   F#   B
It’s too bad what happened to Jesus, but Friday was alright

[Verse 2]
B   F#   B
The red owl howled at a window wide before him
    Bmaj7/G#   F#   B
And nine crossbow returners returned to birds before me
        F#   Bmaj7/G#
And the almost new saddle-burner is called out to me
        F#   B
Without teeth or tongue or warning
B   F#   B
It was a long day for Jesus, and a quiet night in California

[Verse 3]
B   F#   B
The beach ball cathedral swam like a sea fly swarming
             Bmaj7/G#
And you were fighting with people round the bed
                F#   B
Where the apple trains swing round roaring
        F#   Bmaj7/G#
And the birdhouse in the palace burned to the ground in the
         F#   B
Noontime rain as it was reforming
B
I don’t like what happened to Jesus
F#   B
But I sure do like Saturday morning

[Outro]
B/F# F#   E/B B
